SIROCCO

The sense of 'having arrived' at this iconic Bangkok rooftop restaurant begins with the ascent to the 63rd floor and the walk down the artistically lit staircase, with the city below and the soothing strains of the jazz band resonating through the warm breeze.

To your right, perched on a precipice overlooking the city, the celebrated Sky Bar. Just ahead, authentic Mediterranean fare by Chef de Cuisine Sebastien Pinson, who brings to Sirocco decades of gastronomic experience at the starred restaurants and hotels of Europe, the USA and Asia, along with a pantry brimming with exclusive ingredients, many of which have never before been seen in Bangkok.

Choosing between Sirocco's Chef's Tasting Menu and the restaurant's à la carte options is not easy as Chef Pinson's Tasting Menus showcase some of his "best" and "favorite" masterpieces. Indeed, it is through the award-winning interaction of food, wine, ambience and service that the sense of perfection begins to emerge.

Impeccably served by an unobtrusive and knowledgeable staff, Sirocco's exceptional cuisine would not be possible without Chef Pinson's continuous quest for rare and extraordinary ingredients.

For an incomparably romantic repast, an impressive business dinner, or an unforgettable family get-together, cocktails at Sky Bar followed by dinner at the world-renowned Sirocco has become the new five-star standard of the Bangkok bar and restaurant scene, and reservations are recommended a week in advance.

Sirocco has received worldwide recognition and numerous awards, including:
