Exclusive Royal Salute Blended Scotch

Royal Salute was created in June 1953 by the Chivas Brothers as the pinnacle of Scotch whiskies to pay tribute to Her Majesty Queen Elisabeth II Coronation.

Glass

Royal Salute, 62 Gun Salute

19,500

'The best blended Scotch in the world'.

It was launched on June 12, 2010 on the occasion of a firing of a 62 gun salute at the Tower of London to mark Her Majesty Queen Elisabeth II official birthday and Coronation anniversary.

Four generations of master blenders selected the finest whiskies aged for at least 40 years to create the '62 Gun Salute'.

This is presented in a hand crafted Darlington Crystal decanter and served exclusively at The Dome in Thailand.

Glass

Royal Salute 38 Years

4,900

A very special 38yo Royal Salute also called Stone of Destiny is named after the ancient stone used for British royal coronation ceremonies for centuries, symbolizing the approval for the incoming king.

Glass

Royal Salute, The 100Cask Selection

2,100

Colin Scott selected one hundred casks among the finest and rarest whiskies deemed to be at perfect maturation ranging from 22 up to over 40 years old.

He blended them to create the 'Hundred Cask Selection' released in a limited number of flacons and bottled only once in the iconic blue porcelain decanter.
