CUBAN

The Dome at lebuá is the official home of the very exclusive and premium

Crafted from the island's finest tobacco, Cuban cigars are a global symbol of luxury and heritage. Grown in Pinar del Río's famed regions, they are meticulously hand-rolled by master torcedores.

Overseen by Cubatabaco and distributed by Habanos S.A., each cigar bears the mark Hecho en Cuba—a seal of authenticity.

Rooted in Taíno traditions and discovered by Columbus's explorers, Cuban tobacco became a prized export. Despite Spanish control and heavy taxation, Havana cigars rose to elite status—icons of exclusivity and timeless craftsmanship.

DAVIDOFF

The Dome at lebuva is the official home of the very exclusive and premium Davidoff cigars

Zino Davidoff was born in 1906 in Kiev, Ukraine. With pogroms taking place in Russia, the Davidoff family was forced to flee the country. They settled in Geneva Switzerland. It was there that Zino found his love of cigars; it wasn't long until he opened a tobacco shop. At a young age, Zino found himself traveling the country of South America and eventually making his way to Cuba. Once there, Zino fell in love with the people and tobacco and in 1947, he began producing his Chateau Selection cigar line. This was the beginning of a forty-three year long love affair with Cuba.

During the 1980's, several disputes took place with the production facility and Davidoff Cigars moved their entire facility to the Dominican Republic in 1990.

Davidoff Cigars chose the finest tobacco available and rebuilt using the same standards for quality they did in Cuba. It wasn't long before they reemerged and regained their title of producing some of the finest cigars in the world.
